

Contact Information:
Manisha Solomon,
Media Relations
1.800.567.7733 (phone)
1.800.229.3855 (fax)

Quick Facts About Sara Jordan and Her Company

- Established in 1990
- Over 60 titles in distribution
- Most titles available in English, Spanish, and French
- Sara's first title, The 3R Rap®, was nominated for the Grawemeyer Award in Education by the University of Louisville for "outstanding achievement with a potential for world-wide impact."
- Sara Jordan was an educator in an inner-city vocational school in Toronto when she was inspired to develop her products
- Sara's MySpace page: <http://www.myspace.com/funtoteach>
- Products carried in over 50 countries
- A supporter of literacy groups throughout the world
- Winner of numerous Parents' Choice and Directors' Choice Awards
- Exhibitor at the Frankfurt Book Fair—the world's largest and most important book fair for the publishing industry
- Sara started playing piano at the age of three
- Began composing songs at seven
- Holds a Bachelor of Music from University of North Texas, Denton and a Bachelor of Education from the University of Toronto
- Composed music for documentaries
- Played saxophone, clarinet, and flute in a pit orchestras
- Loves hot sauce and jalapeno chili peppers so much that she brought bottles with her to the hospital when she gave birth to her children

Page 1 of 1

Sara Jordan is available for an interview. Please contact media@sara-jordan.com. Sara Jordan has been a composer and educator for over 25 years. Sara Jordan Publishing has produced an impressive array of award-winning educational programs. Over 60 educational audio programs and resource books teach Math, Phonics, Health and Social Studies. Due to worldwide requests from parents and teachers alike, most of her titles are now available in English, Spanish, and French. Visit www.songsthatteach.com

Contact: Manisha Solomon, Media Relations 1.800.567.7733 / media@sara-jordan.com.